

post-regeneration cities: what next for Labour's urban vision?

How can cities best support economic growth, in the context of the localism agenda, public spending cuts and a challenging national economic picture? What more do our largest cities need to drive forward the national economic recovery and spread prosperity across the country?

Join the debate

Confirmed speakers:

Jack Dromey MP Shadow Minister for Communities & Local Government

Lord Beecham Labour Spokesperson for Communities and Local Government

Cllr Nick Forbes Leader, Newcastle City Council

Rod Holmes Chair, Mersey Partnership

Rory Palmer Deputy Mayor of Leicester

Professor Michael Parkinson Director, European Institute for Urban Affairs

Joanna Averley Centre for Cities (Chair)

Date: Tuesday 27 September

Time: 18.15-19.30 (Refreshments provided)

Venue: Touchbase, Meeting rooms 1 & 2
Gower Street, Albert Dock (Outside the secure zone)

www.centreforcities.org/partyconferences